

MOTIONS FOR CLAIMS IN EXCESS OF STATUTORY MAXIMUM

If the amount of compensation claimed (compensation only, not expenses) exceeds the statutory maximum (see 18 § 3006A(d)(2) for the allowed maximums), a motion to exceed should accompany the voucher.

Remember that the maximum applies per case/per defendant, so if you replaced another CJA attorney, his/her claim must be added to your total as it relates to the maximum.

“Complicated or extended” for an excess payment by the court should not be confused with the court designating a “complex” track for a case for trial scheduling purposes per LCrR 10.2.

See Suggested Elements for a Motion for Compensation Claim in Excess of the Statutory Case Compensation Maximum for suggested items for inclusion in the motion.
