- Very recently, Ken Bouchard achieved selection as one of New Hampshire's 100 top Super Lawyers in Law & Politics' Worth Magazine. The selection of the top 100 was based on professionals who "combined exceptional legal expertise with outstanding interpersonal skills and great tact." The selections were done by meeting and contacting hundreds of firms, independent research done by the Law & Politics Magazine which evaluates prospective candidates on more than a dozen indicators of peer recognition and professional achievement as a supplement to the balloting and blue ribbon panel review.

In addition, Ken had previously been selected as one of the 100 top lawyers by his peers and as rated by Lexis-Nexis, the country's leading listing of lawyers. Their standards are based on the highest skill but also on ethical standards.
