In Re: Grand Jury Proceedings, No. 15-1555

In an ongoing grand jury investigation into an alleged scheme to defraud investors regarding the salvaging of a sunken vessel, the district court's grant of the government's motion to compel the production of documents from appellant's attorneys in connection with the investigation and grant of motion for a judicial determination that the crime-fraud exception applied to materials seized from appellant's home are affirmed over claims of attorney-client privilege where neither appellant nor his attorneys ever produced the privilege log required under the Federal Rules.
