

Federal Judge Open Forum

The United States District Court for the District of New Hampshire will host a Federal Judge Open Forum at the Rudman Courthouse on Friday, September 30, 2022, from 9:00 to 10:30 am. The event, which will be moderated by Peter Callaghan and Debra Ford, will afford attendees the opportunity to participate in an interactive question and answer session with the federal judges. If you would like to propose a question before the event, feel free to send your question by email to pcallaghan@preti.com or fordd@jacksonlewis.com.

The event will be followed by an outside reception with breakfast items and refreshments provided.

Due to current COVID-19 community transmission levels, masks must be worn during the inside portion of the event, attendance will be limited, and registration is required.
