McKenney v. Mangino

October 6, 2017

Civil Procedure, Injury & Tort Law, Constitutional Law

(United States First Circuit) - Dismissing the portions of an interlocutory appeal for want of appellate jurisdiction and otherwise affirming the district court's ruling that an officer was not entitled to qualified immunity in the tragic case of a man who died at the hands of a police officer trying to do their job because the denial was legally sound and fact-based arguments were inappropriate for an interlocutory appeal.

US v. Weed

White Collar Crime, Securities Law, Criminal Law & Procedure

(United States First Circuit) - Affirming the district court's denial of a securities lawyer's novel argument that two former stockbrokers for whom he produced false opinion letters in connection to a pump and dump scheme fell into the safe harbor provision of securities law because the stockbrokers were affiliates of the issuing company and ineligible for safe harbor and other procedural complaints were ill-founded.

US v. Tanco Pizarro

October 6, 2017

Sentencing, Criminal Law & Procedure

(United States First Circuit) - Affirming the entry of a guilty plea and the resulting sentence in the case of a firearm conviction relating to a drug crime where the court found the guilty plea was knowing and voluntary and the government didn't breach its agreement when a sentence higher than the minimum was entered because the range of sentences provided in the plea agreement were only recommendations and the defendant was informed of that fact.
