

David W. McGrath
Sheehan Phinney Bass & Green
Boston, Concord, Hanover, Manchester
dmcgrath@sheehan.com

Focus

Since joining Sheehan Phinney Bass & Green, PA in 1992, David has built a successful general business litigation and employment practice. He represents clients (both plaintiffs and defendants) in state and federal courts, arbitration and administrative proceedings.

David frequently serves as a certified mediator for the state and federal courts, administrative agencies, and private parties. In addition to his client practice and mediation practice, David serves as the Firm's President and Managing Director.

David is the immediate Past President of the New Hampshire Bar Association.

Honors

David was recognized in 2015 as the top employment lawyer in New Hampshire, as voted by his peers in a Business New Hampshire Magazine poll. More recently, in 2019, he was recognized by Woodward/White as a 'Lawyer of the Year' in the area of labor/employment law. He has also been recognized for years as a New England "Super Lawyer", and "Top Lawyer" by Chambers USA. He is rated AV by Martindale Hubbell.

Law School

J.D., Cornell University Law School, 1992