

Wilbur A. Glahn, III

Bill Glahn has been a partner at McLane Middleton in Manchester, New Hampshire for almost 40 years. As a trial lawyer, his practice has focused on commercial matters including contract disputes, business break-ups and breaches of fiduciary duty, energy litigation, administrative law, and constitutional litigation. He has mediated many disputes and been involved in several arbitration matters and obtained the reversal of a significant arbitration award in the New Hampshire Supreme Court. He has been appointed a Special Master by the U.S. District Court for the District of New Hampshire, and served for years on the Local Rules Committee of that Court. Bill is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and was the Chair of the College's Federal Civil Procedure Committee. Before joining McLane Middleton, he was an Assistant Attorney General and Chief of the Civil Bureau in the New Hampshire Attorney General's Office. He is a graduate of Trinity College and the University of Chicago Law School. For more information see McLane's website: www.mclane.com
